

100 Fold Studio is a faith-based, nonprofit architecture firm founded in 2010 in Lakeside, Montana. 100 Fold Studio trains young professionals to increase the capacity of nonprofits to serve their communities by providing innovative and affordable architectural services. We currently have opportunities for AmeriCorps and Murdock Charitable Trust architectural internships.

AmeriCorps service opportunities focus on training young architects to provide access to affordable and environmentally-responsible architectural services to help Montana nonprofits, faith-based organizations, and potentially Native American communities in Flathead and Lake Counties, increase their capacity to serve their communities while decreasing the energy costs of their buildings and better protecting the environment.
